VOLUME CVI.--NO. 242. ALEXANDRIA, VA., THURSDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 12, 1905. PRICE 2 CENTS.

When life's autumn comes, women, worn out by the burdens of motherhood, yet shrink from that second "change of life" which will banish these burdens forever. They fear a change in form, in feature, in personal attractiveness. Such fears are largely warranted by the effects which this change produces in many women. But no woman need let these fears fret her.

Those who have used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription do not suffer from the change of life either in face, form or feelings as do other women. This fact is due to the intimate connection of the general health with the health of the organs peculiarly feminine. By preserving the health of these organs, and relieving the system from the debilitating drains, ulcers and inflammations which sap its health, "Favorite Prescription" paves the way for this natural change to come in Nature's way, without the loss of capacity to please others or personal inability to enjoy life.

"Your 'Favorite Prescription' brought me safely through that difficult period, called 'change of life,'" writes Mrs. Mary Ensminger, of 344 E. Ankeny St., Portland, Oregon. "This change made a very unpleasant disturbance through my entire system. I had hot and cold flashes, sick headaches, became excited, flustrated, nervous and irritable. My appetite was fitful and for days I was unable to eat a fair meal. My aunt recommended me to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and it made a great change for the better. Within two weeks the unpleasant feelings had disappeared. I have a husband and eight children so have the care of a large family but was able to attend to my household duties without any difficulty and passed the period without any more trouble. I can recommend your 'Favorite Prescription' as a grand medicine for women."

You may be willing that somebody else shall say that their baby is "just as good" as yours, but you don't want that baby substituted for yours. Let dealers say what they like about other medicines being "just as good" but don't let them substitute anything for "Favorite Prescription." It is absolutely unequaled.

KEEP YOUR HEAD UNCOVERED.

The Constant Wearing of a Hat Propogates Dandruff Germs.

There are many men who wear their hats practically all the time when awake, and are blessed with a heavy shock of hair; yet if the scalps of these same men once became infested with dandruff germs, the parasites would multiply all the quicker for lack of air. Baldness would ensue as the final result. Newbro's Herpicide kills these germs and stimulates unhealthy hair to abundant growth. Herpicide is a pleasant hair dressing as well as a dandruff cure and contains not an atom of injurious substance. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Worsted the Masher.

Miss O. Misoa Sota, who stood a husky athlete on his head when he attempted to speak to her, gave an exhibition in the Harlem Police Court to the magistrate yesterday afternoon which greatly delighted the judges and probably caused any "mashers" who were in court to register a mental resolution never to tackle a diminutive Japanese. The young woman, who weighs only 95 pounds, was in court to complain against John F. McCullen, a sparring partner of Terry McGovern, whom she charged with having attempted to speak to her in the street and whom she stood on his head quicker than he could say "scat."

When her story had been told, though an interpreter, McCullen was fined $5.

"Ajax" Whitman, the strongest policeman on the force, was in court, and he and the magistrate joined in a demand that the young woman give an exhibition of her prowess.

She consented, and twice in succession threw the interpreter to the bridge. He weighed 160 pounds and tried to break loose from the young woman's grip, but with no avail. She told the court that she was no more expert at the game than any of her Japanese sisters, and that all were as fearless as she when it came to a question of settling with a "masher."

Miss Sota, after the interpreter had put his hand on her shoulder as McCullen is alleged to have done, grabbed the interpreter's other arm with a quick motion, shoved one of her tiny feet forward, and the interpreter was hurled backward to the floor. The exhibition was not a satisfactory one to the pair from the land of cherry blossoms, evidently, for Miss Sota signified a desire to do it over again. This time Yoshmure had barely taken a grip on the little woman's shoulder than he was sent flying through the air over Miss Sota's head, landing on the floor with a thud that shook the room. The spectators, who had climbed on chairs to see the exhibition of the little woman's prowess, cheered and the magistrate laughed heartily.

Five Killed in Mutiny.

In the mutiny of four negro members of the four-masted schooner Harry A. Berwind, bound from Mobile to Philadelphia, Capt. Rumill, his mate, cook, and engineer were killed and their bodies thrown overboard. Three of the negroes are under arrest at Southport, N. C., and the other mutineer is dead.

According to the stories told by the negroes, the mutiny arose as the result of a quarrel aboard the Berwind early Tuesday morning about some coffee that was being brewed for breakfast.

The schooner Blanche H. King, Capt. J. W. Taylor, bound from Brunswick, Ga., to Philadelphia, put in at Southport yesterday afternoon, bringing in irons the three negroes.

The Harry A. Berwind left Mobile September 23. She was sighted early yesterday morning thirty miles off the Cape Fear bar bar by Capt. Taylor, whose attention was attracted by the reckless manner in which the ill-fated vessel was being steered, her course threatening to run down his own vessel. Upon a signal from the Berwind Capt. Taylor and crew boarded the vessel and placed the three negroes in irons, bringing the two vessels off the bar.

When the Berwind was boarded the decks of the schooner were crimson with blood, showing evidence of a fierce encounter. The mate's berth was spotted with blood, indicating that he was butchered in bed. One of the prisoners says the mate begged piteously for his life, but in vain.

After the boarding party from the King handcuffed the mutineers on the ship, one of the negroes complained the irons were too tight and hurt him. When one of the boarding party loosened the bracelets on the negro's arm, the captive whipped out a pistol and shot one of his own crew, the presumption being that the man killed had signaled the King against the wishes of the three others.

Could Not be Better.

The uniform success of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has won for it a wide reputation and many people throughout the country will agree with Mr. Chas. W. Mattison, of Milford, Va., who says: "It works like magic, and is the best preparation I know of. It couldn't be any better." He had a serious attack of dysentery and was advised to try a bottle of this remedy, which he did, with the result that immediate relief was obtained. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

A Pleasure To All.

No Pill is as pleasant and positive as De Witt's Little Early Risers. These Famous Little Pills are so mild and effective that children, delicate ladies and weak people enjoy their cleansing effect, while strong people say they are the best liver pills sold. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

Frightful Suffering Relieved

Suffering frightfully from the virulent poisons of undigested food, C. G. Grayson, of Lula, Miss., took Dr. King's New Life Pills, "with the result," he writes "that I was cured." All stomach and bowel disorders give way to their tonic, laxative properties. 25c at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, drugstore, guaranteed.

SWEET CIDER.—1 barrel Fairfax county, Va., Sweet Cider received today, September 22, by J. C. MILBURN.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

THURSDAY EVENING, OCT. 12, 1905.

AS STATED in the Gazette of that day Mr. Frank A. Vanderlip, vice president of the National City Bank, of New York, created a sensation yesterday in the convention of the American Bankers' Association, in Washington, when he warned the delegates that a wave of wild stock speculation might at any time bring on a financial panic. The effect of Mr. Vanderlip's words was noticeable within a few hours on the stock exchanges, when prices showed declines. Mr. Vanderlip's warning was supplemented by that of Secretary Shaw, who, although drawing an optimistic picture of present conditions, expressed the fear that prosperity might end in a reaction due to the inflexible monetary system. All times of unusual prosperity have been followed by a period of depression and the remarks of Messrs. Vanderlip and Shaw would indicate that they see an approaching storm.

IT IS reported that as a means to make good the anticipated deficit in the federal revenue, to help dig the Panama canal, to build more warships and to avoid tariff revision, the Congress will be asked to reimpose the war tax of a dollar a barrel on beer. Such a tax would put forty million dollars in the Treasury, and this beery tribute would float the Ship of State clear of financial shallows; but it will be stoutly opposed by the brewers, who insist that because they cannot add any part of the tax to the prices at which they dispose of their product it is an unfair exaction. Another scheme to raise revenue is a proposition to impose a tax on coffee. It will be observed that coffee and beer are the drinks of the poor who, it seems, are required to pay an unjust proportion of taxes under the high tariff laws.

IN THE last presidential campaign, when silverism was not an issue, the Mutual Life Insurance Company gave the republican campaign committee $40,000. In 1900, when silverism was a subordinate issue, it gave $35,000. In 1896, when it was the one issue overshadowing everything else, it gave only $15,000. "That," says the Philadelphia Record, "shows the hollowness of the pretense that these are not really political contributors, but were non-partisan gifts to sustain the cause of honest money."

WALTER CAMP in New Haven yesterday made a statement that the representatives of Yale, Harvard and Princeton present at the conference with President Roosevelt signed an agreement to do all in their power to bring about the enforcement of the rules against unneccessary roughness on the football field. The casual reader would imagine that the President had enough State matters to attend to without undertaking to regulate football games.

REV. JOHN L. SCUDDER, of the Jersey City First Congregationalist Church, has engaged John Harvey, the professional wrestler, as athletic instructor in the People's Palace, which is an adjunct of the church. Mr. Scudder offers to let Harvey wrestle with all comers as an innocent entertainment for the young people of the church. It seems that in many churches nowadays everything but Christianity is taught.

FRIENDS of Mr. Joseph Ramsey, who was beaten by Mr. George J. Gould in the fight at Toledo for control of the Wabash Railway, say he will make startling disclosures in the near future. Such disclosures would have come better before Mr. Ramsey was displaced than afterwards.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, D. C., Oct. 12.

The meeting which had been arranged for this afternoon between the Columbian Minister, Senor Mendoza; the Secretary of State, Mr. Root, and Mr. Barrett, formerly U. S. Minister to Panama and now Minisier to Colombia, has been postponed until some future date not fixed. The reason is the inability of Senor Mendoza to come on account of the fact that his wife is ill in New York and about to undergo a surgical operation. The purpose of the meeting was to enable the Colombian representative to present to this government the views of Colombia with regard to the conditions that have arisen since Panama broke away from its allegiance to Colombia and established itself as an independent State. Minister Barrett, who is here today, this morning corrected the erroneous impression that it had been the intention to have Mr. Obaldia, to Panaman Minister, present at the conference. The United States, according to Mr. Barrett, has made no proposition whatever to either Colombia or Panama with a view of bringing them together. This government is merely acting the part of a good friend of both, and today's meeting was projected for the purpose of ascertaining what conditions Colombia thinks should be met by Panama before the old friendly relations can be resumed. The whole question hinges upon the recognition by Colombia of Panama's independence. There are no treaties now in force between Panama and her mother country and trade relations and the interests of citizens of both countries being in [illegible] other are jeopardized by the continuation of the present anomalous conditions. An important question involved in the matter is the claim of Colombia that Panama should bear a portion of the foreign debt of the former which was assumed when Panama was a province of Colombia. The idea of Colombia is that this debt should be shared pro rata on a basis of the population of the two countries. The debt amounts to about $5,000,000. Panama's population is about 300,000 and that of Colombia something over three millions. On the basis proposed Panama's share would therefore be about $500,000 in gold. Against this, however, Panama claims some set-offs. She insists that Colombia borrowed money from her treasury when she was a province of that country and that she forgot to pay it back. Eventually it is probable that through the good offices of this country Panama and Colombia will become reconciled and a basis of mutual agreement upon all the questions in dispute may be reached.

Senator Long, of Kansas, who recently returned from the Philippines, had a talk with the President this morning over the needs of the islanders. "The Filipinos need a reduction in the duties," said Senator Long, "and will be in bad financial condition until they are given some aid in this line. Recently they have suffered from typhoons and droughts and as a consequence their crops have failed and they are discontented. Their discontent, however, is not serious enough to threaten any revolutionary movements and is not any more pronounced than it would be anywhere where similar conditions prevailed." Referring to the prospect for railroad rate legislation during the coming session of Congress, Senator Long expressed the belief that it would be disposed of early in the winter. "The committee will report within ten days of the opening of the session," said Senator Long, "and that ought to put it among the first matters of importance to be disposed of." Senator Long said that there is a prospect for a warm campaign over Senator Burton's seat. A large number of candidates are already in the field, including Representatives Curtis and Campbell, State Committee Chairman Stubbs and Governor Hoch.

According to a statement just made public by the Department of Commerce and Labor on the immigration to this country during the month of August, there were 63,409 aliens landed, as compared with 59,777 during August, 1904. England gives way in third place to Austria. Russia holds the first place as the home of immigrants and Italy second. From China there were but 215 landed as compared with 520 a year ago. Of those who landed 1,311 were debarred. Of this number 930 were paupers or likely to become public charges.

Through the endeavors of Senators Pyle and Ankeny on the behalf of citizens of Seattle, Washington, the President will consider with the cabinet at its meeting Friday questions upon which depend in a large degree the fate of a proposed industrial exposition to be held at Seattle next summer. The proposed exposition would be practically a continuation of the Portland exposition. The fair at Portland will close Saturday. It has been a great success. It is desired that the government permit the Seattle citizens to give bond to keep the government exhibits on the coast until next summer, or, at least, until an effort can be made to induce Congress to authorize the exposition.

Secretary of War Taft announced today definitely that he would make at least one speech in Ohio during the campaign. The place will be Akron, and the date probably Saturday, Oct. 21.

The long standing feeling of chilliness between the people of Charleston and the President over the objectionable Crum appointment, seems to be subsiding. Today a large delegation from the city called upon the executive, after visiting the Secretary of the Navy, to arrange for the presentation of a silver service to the cruiser Charleston, and had a very happy talk and regulation love feast. The President capped the happy climax by inviting Mayor Rhett and ex-Mayor Smyth to luncheon this afternoon, an invitation that was gladly accepted.

Final arrangements have been made for the transfer to the government of the Dominican friar lands in the Philippines which have been under dispute for so long. On the 20th of this month the government will pay, through the International Banking Corporation in New York the sum of $3,521,657 to the Philipines Sugar Estates Development Co. in final payment for the lands. This price is $150,000 less than was asked before Secretary Taft made his recent visit to the Philippines and the compromise that he effected in this case alone is thus far more than enough to pay the expenses of his trip. This payment will conclude the friar land purchase which involved a total of 410,000 acres and an outlay of $7,239,000. Over the Dominican lands which included about 150,000 acres a dispute arouse as to the title to part of the tract and the government served notice on the developement company that no money be paid over until an absolutely clear title was furnished. This has now been accomplished. The money from which to make the payment was raised by the sale of Philippine bonds and the $3,521,657 which is to be paid out on the 20th inst., has been on deposit with the International Baking Corporation and the Guarantee Trust Company in New York City for about two years, drawing interest.

Inter-State Commerce Report.

The eighteenth annual report of the Inter-State Commerce Commission shows that 487 complaints were filed for consideration and action during the year 1904 although the number of tons of freight carried by the railroads was in the neighborhood of 1,300,000,000. The commission in its report states that these cases included both formal and informal complaints as well as proceedings and investigations instituted on its own motion and two cases submitted to the commission by agreement of the parties for investigations and determination of the questions in dispute.

The number of formal cases and investigations instituted during the year was 62, involving directly the rates and practices of 302 railroads. Fifty-eight hearings have been held in different parts of the country. Besides disposing of a large number of complaints through informal investigation and deciding numerous questions arising in relation to the publication and observance of tariffs, the commission has rendered during the year 27 decisions in reports and opinions upon contested cases or investigations made by the commission on its own motion.

The condition of ex-Speaker David B. Henderson, who is critically ill, at Dubuque, Iowa, is unchanged. His death may come at any time.

News of the Day.

Joseph Ramsey, jr., of Toledo, Ohio, was defeated yesterday in his effort to control the Wabash system, and failed even to retain his seat as director.

Emperor Nicholas has turned over to the National Assembly the question of the abolition of restrictions to the admission of Jews to the universities.

The $50,000,000 commissary contract awarded by Chairman Shonts, of the Panama Canal Commission, to J. E. Markel, of Omaha, Neb., has been canceled. The commission says present conditions are satisfactory.

President Spencer, of the Southern Railway, in an address before the Newark Board of Trade yesterday, denounced the putting of rate control into the hands of the Interstate Commerce Commission as "commercial lynch law."

With the bloody knife in his pocket with which he had stabbed to death Mary King, six hours before at her home in Cleveland, O., William Towns, the boarder at the King home, was placed under arrest in a restaurant yesterday. Towns admitted that he killed the girl. Towns was a rejected suitor and had, it is said, frequently threatened the life of Miss King.

George W. Murray, colored, a former member of Congress, was yesterday in Columbia S. C., sentenced to serve three years in the penitentiary for forgery. Murray, who is reported to be wealthy, was charged with forging the name of an old negro on certain notes for land. At the time of his arrest Murray was released on $3,000 bond, which it is thought will be forfeited.

Lieut. Col. R. L. Hoxie, U. S. A., Corps of Engineers, is preparing plans for the improvement of several tributaries of the Potomac, and of other streams. According to the plans prepared Occoquan creek and Breton bay, both tributaries of the Potomac; Carter's creek, near the mouth of the Rappahannock river, and the Mattaponi and Pamunkey rivers, are to be deepened.

The hearings of arguments on the demurrers to the indictment returned by the federal grand jury against five of the big packing concerns and 17 of their employes was closed late yesterday afternoon in Chicago, and if Judge Humphrey, before whom the arguments have been made, retains his present impression of the case, one-half of the indictments charging the packers with conspiracy in restraint will be sustained and the remaining counts overruled.

A jeering and more or less violent crowd of nearly 3,000 persons in Kaukauna, Wis., yesterday greeted the car in which Wenzel E. Kabat, accused of the murder of Michael McCarty, was taken to that place to appear before Justice M. D. Schim. Shouts of "Lynch him!" "Burn him!" were frequently heard, and the squad of 15 police officers, the sheriff and four deputy sheriffs were kept busy fighting the mob and keeping them from getting at the accused man before he entered the courtroom. The wildest excitement prevailed in the courtroom before the judge called the crowd to order.

Made Good the Loss.

The First National Bank of Cincinnati yesterday received by telegraph from Pittsburg the $100,000 which was to have been brought by express, but disappeared in Pittsburg. The express company directed the payment to the bank immediately on finding that it had been actually in their possession at the time of its loss.

The disappearance of Edward G. Cunliffe, employed by the Adams Express Company, and $101,000, which the company has missed, remains a mystery. Cunliffe, the suspected man, signed for the money package containing the $100,000 and the package never reached the money forwarding office. There was about $1,000 in the office of the express company Monday, which cannot be found. Some officers say Cunliffe is in hiding in Pittsburg, while others are of the opinion that he is many miles away.

Jail Delivery.

Another jail delivery was effected at Staunton, Tuesday night, when five prisoners escaped from the Augusta county jail. The prisoners were confined on the first floor of the jail, and were allowed to stay in the corridor of the jail in place of being confined in the steel cages. The bars to the windows on this floor are about three and one half inches apart and about three-quarters of an inch thick. The men sawed one of these bars in two at the top and broke it off at the bottom by bending it with a piece of pipe, thus making an aperture seven and one-half inches by fifteen inches. After squirming through this small hole, they tied a blanket to the bars and let themselves down over the balcony. This is the third delivery from the county jail within a short time, and two since the escape of John W. Kennedy, the condemned train wrecker.

Japan and Korea.

Mr. Huribut, of the Korean Review, makes grave charges against the Japanese administration in Korea. He says thousands of Korean peasants are threatened with starvation and heartrendering scenes are occurring daily, because the peasants are dispossessed of their lands without compensation.

A dispatch from Tokio states that a stern Korean policy is to be adopted by Japan following the announcement of the Anglo-Japanese treaty. Tokio publicists state freely that since the treaty guarantees the freedom of Japan in its prosecution of Korean interests the shadow of a Korean government will shortly be swept away and practical suzerainty over Korea established. Several Japanese papers state that foreign ministers in Korea will probably be withdrawn shortly.

Damage by Storm.

Considerable damage was done to property on the Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama and Florida coasts by the recent storm. The greatest damage appears to have been done along the Mississippi coast, where thousands of dollars' worth of property was destroyed by the wind and water. Bay St. Louis and Waveland, Miss., were the greatest sufferers along the coast, the financial loss at those two places being estimated at $80,000 or $90,000. Fears are entertained for the safety of the three-masted schooner Palmer, which sailed from Gulfport, Miss., Friday. A quantity of floating wreckage was found near Dog Keys, east of Ship Island, and it is feared that the Palmer went down during the storm.

Virginia News.

Mrs. Montague, wife of the Governor, announced that she will give a luncheon to Mrs. Roosevelt and entertain her at the executive mansion from 2 to 3 o'clock next Wednesday. There will be no public reception at the mansion.

Cox, the Baptist minister who was arrested at Saltville, on September 5, when he was in the midst of a revival meeting there., on a charge of chicken theft, has just been adjudged guilty in the Circuit Court at Jonesboro and sentenced to serve 30 days in jail. Cox is said to be a brilliant man and highly connected in Tennessee.

British Squadron at Yokohama.

The British squadron of 12 vessels under the command of Vice-Admiral Sir Gerard Noel arrived at Yokohama yesterday morning and was officially welcomed amid scenes of general enthusiasm by Vice-Admiral Shimamura. The squadron entered in single column line ahead, the torpedoboat destroyers leading, and took up an anchorage facing the shore.

Salutes were exchanged between the Japanese flagship Iwate and the British flagship Diadem. Admiral Shimamura then went on board the Diadem, accompanied by the Governor and other local authorities and a representative of Sir Claude M. MacDonald, the British Minister at Tokio. Admiral Noel later visited the Iwate.

After these ceremonies had been concluded Admiral Noel, with 1,300 officers and men, landed and paraded through a cheering multitude to a garden party given by the municipality, at which they were entertained by dancing and feats of juggling and wrestling. Day fireworks were displayed, and the entire city was decorated.

At a banquet yesterday evening Mayor Ichihara proposed a toast to King Edward, Queen Alexandra and the British navy, and welcomed the visit of the squadron as strengthening the Anglo-Japanese alliance for the peaceful industrial development of the far East and the civilization of the world. He referred to the presence of the United States battleship Wisconsin in the port of Yokohama and cordially welcomed it to Japanese waters. Although the United States was not bound to Japan by formalities, Major Ichihara said that country was regarded as the friend of all nations having community of interest in far Eastern politicies. He said that President Roosevelt had illuminated the American policy for peace and the open door in China and Korea, and therefore it was the speaker's belief that the Anglo-Japanese alliance was heartily indorsed by the United States. Admiral Noel and his staff left this morning for Tokio.

Church Dedication.

The handsome stone edifice known as St. James Protestant Episcopal Church which stands as a monument in this town to the labors of the Christian spirit of the King's Daughters, its vestry and communicants, was formally consecrated to the service of God yesterday (Wednesday) morning, when it was presented by the vestry to the Bishop of the Diocese of Virginia for that purpose.

Preparatory to the consecration Rev. Wm. Meade Clarke, of St. James Church, Richmond, preached an excellent sermon at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening.

Yesterday morning the service began, with the musical programme by the choir at 10:20 o'clock. At 11 o'clock the vestry entered from the vestry room, marched to the vestibule, there formed in open order, when Bishop Robert A. Gibson Rt. Rev. A. M. Randolph of the Diocese of Southern Virginia, and Rt. Rev. G. W. Peterkin, of the Diocese of West Virginia, together with the members of the Piedmont Convocation, passed through to the altar.

The vestry fell into the procession and took seats in the front row of pews. The beautiful service of the formal donation and the sentence of consecration stirred the hearts of many who had labored so unceasingly to see the full fruition of this holy hour.

The consecration sermon was preached by Bishop Randolph.

Next week we hope to give a more detailed account of these interesting services, which will continue until tomorrow evening, together with a brief history of the church.—[Leesburg Mirror.

Offers Large Reward.

Isidor Wormser, the millionaire banker, of New York, offered $100,000 yesterday for the conviction of a gang of men who recently assaulted Annie Thornton, a domestic employed in his household. In court yesterday, when five men were arraigned for the assault, Mr. Wormser said: "It will give $100,000 to have the perpetrators of this dastardly crime convicted and sent to prison." Recently on Miss Thornton's birthday Mr. Wormser gave her $50 and a holiday as a reward for several years' services in his employment. That evening while passing a stable on the West Side, she said, she was seized by two men, dragged into the stable and about a dozen other men joined them there. She did not escape from the stable until the next morning. Her health was seriously affected by her experience. The five men arraigned yesterday were held in $2,000 bail each, and the police announced that they expect to arrest nine more men in connection with the assault.

Letter to Dr. T. B. Cochran.

Alexandria, Va.

Dear Sir; It's the same everywhere; can't guess little enough.

Mr. C. O. Brown, Columbia, S. C. employed an experienced painter to paint his house. The painter on seeing the quantity sent to the house—Devoe—said there wasn't enough. There were ten gallons left, when the job was done.

It's the common experience.

Yours truly,

Horrible Murder.

New York, Oct. 12.—A ghastly and bloody murder was committed in a Third avenue boarding house at an early hour this morning, when an unknown man was killed and his body horribly dismembered. An attempt was made to conceal the identity of the dead man by throwing away his head in a vacant lot on Eighteenth street, some distance from the scene of the crime. One arrest has been made. Shortly after two o'clock this morning George Lanole, who has a room on the second floor floor of No. 149 Third avenue, heard a succession of pistol shots. He thought they came from the room of Fred Bauer, a former employe of the Union Square Hotel, who has a room on the same floor as Lanole. After the shots Lanole said he heard steps going through the hall to the sink. Several trips were made. Lanole for some reason or other made no outcry and did not report the shooting to the police until eight o'clock. The police went to the Third avenue house, and went to Bauer's room, which presented the picture of a slaughter house. On the floor was a dress suit case into which was stuffed the left arm of a man. The floor was covered with blood and in a clothes hamper in the closet was the torso of a man. The head could not be found in the room. In the hamper was a bloody razor with which the deed was probably committed. Shortly after the discovery four laborers working on an excavation reported to the police that a head of a man had been found thrown upon a pile of dirt. The head was taken to the Third avenue police station and found to fit upon the torso. Fred Bauer was arrested, but denied knowledge of the crime. He told the police that he knew nothing about it.

Later the body was indentified as that of Thomas Corcoran, who resided at No. 344 Third avenue, with his sister, and her husband, John McMurrough. The identification was made by the latter, who stated that the deceased left home about 8 o'clock last night with a man named John Grout, who is employed by Fish, Deore & Carroll, horse dealers, with a place of business on Thirty-fourth street, near Lexington avenue. The police have so far been unable to find Grout. Bauer, in his statement to the police, said that last night he was out with three men, Corcoran, another civilian, and a soldier in uniform. He did not know their names. All drank freely during the night, and finally wound up in his room. He was very intoxicated, he said, and the others put him to bed. He knew nothing more until he was arrested.

At the office of Hiss, Deore & Carroll, it was said that Grout had worked for them at times during the past six months. He was a horse salesman. The examination of Corcoran's body by the coroners disclosed the fact that the man had been shot through the mouth, the bullet lodging in the brain.

Fatal Leap.

New York, Oct. 12.—Armitage Matthews, a well known lawyer and politician, committed suicide at 8.30 o'clock this morning by jumping from the second floor of the house where he lived, at No. 335 Central Park West. He was instantly killed. Mr. Matthews was to have been tried for conspiracy today before Justice Davy in the criminal branch of the Supreme Court. The suicide must have been done on the impulse of the moment, for Mr. Matthews had made appointments late last night, with a friend for this morning, at the very time he leaped from the window. After the discovery of the suicide a quick examination showed that Matthews had been instantly killed. There was a compound fracture at the base of the brain, and the top of the skull was split wide open. There were several bruises on the body. Investigation showed that Matthews had gone to the bath room and, without throwing off his bath robe, climbed to a narrow window just above the tub. The window was so narrow that when Matthews forced his way through the aperture, he carried part of the sash with him. Matthews was indicted some months ago by the grand jury and the case grew out of the wrecking of the Federal Bank indirectly, and the robbing of the Weissel estate by David Rothschild, the President of the bank. Rothschild was one of the trustees of the estate and was bonded by a concern of which Matthews was an attorney.

Another German Reverse.

Capetown, Oct. 12.—News of another serious reverse to German arms in Southwest Africa reached here today. It came in an official announcement which stated that the Hottentot Chiefs Marengo and Morris had captured the Jerusalem Camp near Warmbad, after severe fighting. Warmbad is a strong German base, so that the achievement of the Hottentots is noteworthy. Lieutenant Surmand and six men were killed in the fighting at Jerusalem Camp, while eight others were wounded. The Hottentots suffered no loss. They captured all the stock and stores. Several Germans were captured, and, after being disarmed, they were sent to General Von Trotha, the German military commander, and carrying a letter from Chief Marengo to the general, which contained this defi: "The Hottentots are now in a position to take the offensive and fight to the bitter end." Klepats, a small garrison near Warmbad, was evacuated by the German garrison when they heard that Marengo was in the vicinity. They burned all the stores and retired toward Descondez camp. Father Holopensky has been arrested and sent to Keetmansleep because of his failure to negotiate with Chief Marengo. The priest was heavily menacled after taken into custody. The garrison at Nikas has been strengthened by nine hundred men and a battery of artillery.

Terry Martin Defeated.

Providence, R. I., Oct. 12.—Dave Hessler, of Cambridge, got the decision over Terry Martin, of Philadelphia, after 15 rounds of very tame fighting at the Athletic Club, in Thornton, last night. Martin was picked by most of the local sports to win the feature event, and considerable money was placed on him at 10 to 8. The Cambridge boy fought all-around Martin, who was very awkward in the last three or four rounds.

He says: "Two years ago I had Kidney Trouble, which caused me great pain, suffering and anxiety, but I took Electric Bitters, which effected a complete cure. I have also found them of great beuefit in general debility and nerve trouble, and kept them constantly on hand, since, as I find they have no equal.' E. S. ### The New Alliance.

London, Oct. 12.—Advices to the Exchange Telegraph Company from Lahore, India, state that as a consequence of the new alliance between Japan and Great Britain, which enlarges the scope of the agreement between the two nations, to include India within the provision of joint protection, the garrison has been relied upon for the protection of India's eastern frontiers. The reduction of the garrison is regarded as asign that Great Britain, since the new alliance, no longer believes it necessary to support such a large garrison as was formerly the case.

Some Seasonable Advice.

It may be a piece of superfluous advice to urge people at this season of the year to lay in a supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is almost sure to be needed before winter is over, and much more prompt and satisfactory results are obtained when taken as soon as a cold is contracted and before it has become settled in the system, which can only be done by keeping the remedy at hand. This remedy is so widely known and so altogether good that no one should hesitate about buying it in preference to any other. It is for sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

The Bankers.

Washington, D. C. Oct. 12.—Resolutions embodying the ship subsidy principle was introduced in the meeting of the American Bankers' Association by Col. R. J. Lowry, of Atlanta, Ga., and adopted. The ship subsidy bill was specifically endorsed, and the influence of the association toward congressional action was pledged for the rejuvenation of the American shipping. Opposition to the subsidy feature was voiced by President John G. Fletcher, of the Germania National Bank, of Little Rock, Arkansas, who declared that a subsidy was a governmental handicap and un-American in principle.

Mr. Fletcher was cheered but his objections failed to prevail, the resolution being adopted.

President Van Slyke of the First National Bank of Madison, Wisconsin advocoted the passage of restraining laws to protect stockholders, particularly laws admittedly just and reasonable such as will be enforced when enacted.

Campbell Osborne, of the South Bend 2nd National Bank, introduced a resolution recommending federal legislation making it a misdemeanor to obtain loans from national banks by false representation.

The report of the Currenty Committee was read. The need of greater flaxibility in the currency was urged as one of the most pressing problems now to be contended with by the bankers and business men of the country.

Warrants of Arrest.

Philadelphia, Oct. 12.—Warrants were issued this afternoon by Magistrate Eisenbrown for the arrest of former Director of Public Safety, Abraham L. English, Henry E. Baton, John W. Henderson, Philip H. Johnson, and James D. Finley, charging them with "conspiracy to cheat and defraud the city of Philadelphia, in connection with the awarding of the contract between the said city and Henderson & Co. for the construction of the smallpox hospital."

Philip H. Johnson is the architect appointed by Mayor Ashbridge on all municipal work, and is a brother-in-law of Israel W. Durham. James D. Finley is a cousin of Durham and an inspector at the smallpox hospital, now in course of construction. Baton and Henderson are members of the firms named. The warrants were issued at the instance of former Judge Gordon, Mayor Weaver's special counsel.

Leonard Arraigned.

New York, Oct. 12.—Harry A. Leonard, the Wall street messenger, who fleeced the National City Bank out of $359,000, on a forged order on Pearl & Company, was arraigned in Part I of General Sessions, before Judge McMahon, this morning, to plead to two indictments for grand larceny, first degree, and for forgery, second degree. It was fully expected that he would plead guilty. He created considerable surprise when he entered a plea of not guilty through his counsel, Abe Levy. Mr. Levy stated subsequently that it had been decided to fight the case, as he was convinced that the prosecution could not prove intent.

Hose Carriage Collides with Street Car.

Chicago, Oct. 12.—Three firemen were probably fatally injured and two badly hurt this morning by the collision of a hose carriage with a street car at Larsbee and Black Hawk streets. The carriage with five men was proceeding at full speed on the response to an alarm. The hose carriage was thrown thirty feet away and the horses killed. None of the passengers in the street car were injured, though badly shaken up.

Emperor William Warned.

Berlin, Oct. 12.—The Frankfurter Zeitung has created a sensation by publishing a story that the military advisers of Emperor Willlam have warned him that Germany should not be brought into a war with England, as the German army would be unable to strike a blow on England's territory. The advisers told the Emperor that the English navy would annihilate the navy of Germany and would then destroy the shipping, and end German maritime trade.

Cold Wave in New Orleans.

New Orleans, Oct. 12.—A cold wave unprecedented for this time of the year struck New Orleans this morning. The temperature dropped to 66 degrees in twelve hours.

English Champion Defeated.

Springfield, Mass., Oct. 12.—Jim Barnes, middle weight champion of America, defeated Jim Parr, champion of England, and light-heavy weight champion of the world, in a handicap wrestling match here last night. Parr was to throw Barnes twice within an hour. He gained one fall in 39 minutes and 20 seconds, but was unable to gain another in the time remaining. The match was for $500, aside and the gate receipts.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Oct. 12.—The liquidation started by Vanderlip's speech yesterday, continued at the opening and during the first hour today, many speculative accounts being liquidated. Room traders generally not only sold long stock, but put out many lines for short account. The downward movement extended from ½ to 1½ in the usually active stocks, and from 1 to 3 points in the high priced shares. In the recent trading there has been some covering of shorts, and a good deal of buying for cash by investors who were awaiting an opportunity to accumulate good stocks, at what they considered fair prices.

The Election Today.

The primary election today for Clerk of Corporation and Circuit Courts of this city has been marked by energy and determination upon the part of Messrs. N. S. Greenaway and Charles Bendheim, the candidates, and their numerous supporters. Voting began promptly at 6 o'clock as soon as the windows were open at the polling places, and in about two hours and a half 450 votes had been cast in the four wards. While the contestants and their friends professed confidence in the result, there was a ripple of anxiety perceptible at times in both camps. The city has been closely canvassed and every expediency resorted to in order to bring out a full vote. Attempts have been made at times to bring about issues, but they have had but little effect upon the electorate at large, as it has always been justly maintained that, after all, voters were merely called upon to choose between two good and efficient men.

The vote at 3:30 o'clock stood:

|---|---|
| First ward | 281 |
| Second ward | 322 |
| Third ward | 233 |
| Fourth ward | 225 |
| Total | 1061 |

Death of Inman H. Payne.

Mr. Inman H. Payne, a prominent citizen of Warrenton, died Tuesday after a short illness at Hamilton, Mont., while the guest of his daughter, Mrs. C. M. Crutchfield. Mr. Payne was about 84 years old, of commanding stature, with courtly manners and a genial disposition. His wife, who was a Miss Massey, died a few years ago. Their home near Warrenton was the scene of an interesting family gathering when they celebrated the golden anniversary of their wedding. Prominent in every movement which affected the welfare of the Warrenton community, Mr. Payne was held in high regard. His body is being brought from Montana by his daughter and son, Mr. John M. Payne, of Baltimore. The funeral will take place Monday at Warrenton, where services will be held in St. James' Episcopal Church, of whose vestry Mr. Payne was a member. In addition to the children mentioned, he is survived by Mr. Inman H. Payne, of Norfolk; Mr. Bernard W. Payne, of Columbus, Ohio, and Mr. Julian D. Payne, of New Orleans, and Mr. George H. Payne, of Baltimore. Mr. Payne had a large circle of friends in this city.

Rechabites.

The High Tent, Independent Order of Rechabites, is in session in Scottish Rite Hall, Washington, and the sessions are interesting. The order is peculiar in the respect that the high chief ruler has the power (by consent of the delegates) to confer on any member the title of Past Chief Ruler for valuable services rendered to the order, whether the person thus honored has ever held the office or not. For some reason there were quite a number who opposed this measure, and for a time a lively discussion followed as to whether the High Chief Ruler should exercise the power vested in him or not. Finally a vote was taken and those who opposed the measure were outnumbered overwhelmingly, when the honor was conferred on three persons who have been instrumental in building up tents in this vicinity, among them being Mr. W. L. Griffin of Perseverance Tent of this city. Among the delegates in attendance on this session are Messrs. L. D. Lyles, Edgar Lyles, C. M. Griffin and W. L. Griffin. Mr. W. W. Cordell, who is well known here is a candidate for the position of High Chief Ruler, and his friends are very sanguine of his election.

The Transfer Service.

It is again stated that the transfer service of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, which transfers freight cars from the Baltimore and Ohio line at Shepherd's landing to the Southern Railway in this city, is to be abandoned in a short time and that the tug Major Brewerton and the transfer barge will be returned to Baltimore. When this is done all southbound trains of the Baltimore and Ohio will go through Washington and south over the new railway bridge. The transfer service of the Baltimore and Ohio was inaugurated over thirty years ago and has been in operation summer and winter since that time.

Prayer Meeting.

The prayer meeting to be held in the Children's Home tonight will be of an especial nature. Mr. Chas. Pierpoint will conduct the service and make an address. Mrs. Kines, of the choir of Trinity Church, will be present and sing a solo. Mrs. A. L. and Geo. Jamieson and C. L. Pickin with W. L. Griffin will furnish the instrumental music. These meetings are very well attended and much interest is shown in the work at this point. The services are held in the parlors of the home and everyone is welcome. Good singing, and short talks are prominent features.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

John Thomas, colored, arrested by Officer Nicholson charged with trespassing upon the property of F. Mumford, was dismissed.

Henry Staunton, colored, arrested by Officer Roberts charged with defacing property, was fined $2.50.

William Cleveland, arrested by Officer Smith for vagrancy, was sentenced to serve 60 days on the chain gang.

The 413th Anniversary.

The gathering of the Alexandria Knights of Columbus around the hospitable board at the Elkton, last night, was a most enjoyable occasion. It was the eve of the natal day of the order when, 413 years ago, Columbus in the Santa Maria left Palos, in Spain, with his face towards unknown America and gave exhibition to the spirit of progress which is the animating principle of Columbian Knighthood.

Legality of Retrocession.

In reference to the status of Alexandria county which has been raised by the counsel of several men recently arrested for gambling, and which is now before the U. S. District Court in Richmond, the Washington correspondent of the Richmond Times-Dispatch writes:

In the habeas corpus proceedings, Nelson and La Fontaine raise the question of the legality of the retrocession by Congress to Virginia of that portion of the District of Columbia originally ceded for the capital. This now constitutes Alexandria county, and the poolroom men say they were in the District of Columbia and that their arrest was without legal authority. In continuning the case Judge Waddill held the defendants in $1,000 each. The sentence imposed by the Virginia courts was six months in jail and $2,500 five. This makes the amount of bail fixed for each defendant at $3,500. Bail has been furnished in each of the two cases against the men which grew out of their arrest twice on similar charges. It is evident that Nelson and La Fontaine are determined to make a hard fight to escape the sentence imposed by the Virginia courts, and, incidentally, to carry on the business of operating a pool room. It is possible that the proceedings brought by them may develop into one of the most interesting questions of constitutional law ever brought in the United States. The question of the validity of the retrocession by Congress was brought out in the case of Phillips vs. Payne, which was before the United States Supreme Court in 1876. The same contention was made them, but the unanimous opinion of the court delivered by Justice Swayne, set forth that while the act of Congress was in violation of the Constitution, the law of presumption applied to nations, as well individuals. Seven years ago the United States Supreme Court had occasion to fix the boundary of the District of Columbia at highwater mark on the southern shore of the Potomac River.

The Poolroom.

The poolroom at Jackson City, in Alexandria county, was in full blast yesterday afternoon, and the usual crowd of habitues of old St. Asaph, when that place was in operation, picked the ponies. The amount of business done was rather small, but the men who are operating the establishment say they will do better today, and probably every day until the 19th of this month, when the United States Court will decide whether it can continue to do business by deciding whether the national government had the right to cede back to Virginia land ceded for a site for the national capital. The short lease of life given to its promoters, John C. Nelson and James Lafontaine, by Judge Waddill, presiding in the United States District Court at Richmond, has been taken advantage of, and with practically an absolute protection against being raided at least until Thursday, October 19th, gambling on the races will be carried on in a fearless manner. An air of assurance that there would be no molestation pervaded the establishment and the promoters, as well as patrons, seemed thoroughly at ease. The action of Judge Waddill in advising Crandall Mackay, attorney for the Commonwealth of Alexandria, not to make a raid on the place, is considered by the "turfites" as a good omen that, when the final hearing in the case will have been heard, a decision in favor of the pool room operators will be handed down. Pending such decision, the hands of the authorities of both Alexandria county and the District of Columbia are tied, and this fact was flashed over the telegraph wires Tuesday afternoon.

Piedmont Convocation.

The Piedmont Convocation of the Protestant Episcopal Church, comprising the counties of Loudoun, Fauquier, Prince William, Fairfax, Rappahannock, Culpeper, Madison and Alexandria, convened in St. James Episcopal Church, Leesburg, on Tuesday and will continue in session until tomorrow. Thirty-two ministers and many delegates are in attendance. The president of the convocation is Rev. Everard Meade, of Accotink, and the secretary, Rev. J. W. Ware, of Culpeper. Among those who are attending the convocation are Revs. P. P. Phillips, W. J. Morton and Edgar Carpenter, of this city; Revs. Berryman Green, S. A. Wallis, R. W. Micou, Angus Crawford and R. K. Massie, of the Seminary.

Assaulted and Robbed.

Charles White, colored, appeared at the station house last night with a triangular-shaped cut on his head and bleeding profusely. He told the officers that he had been assaulted and robbed of over $25 on the old fair grounds on upper King street by Jack Muse, colored. Officers Young and Roberts started this morning on a search for Muse, but they failed to find him. White was taken to the Alexandria Hospital for treatment. He is employed on railroad work near this city.

Recovered Ham.

The procedure of an upper King street merchant attracted some attention this morning in the vicinity of his store. He walked hurriedly after a colored woman and took a ham from a basket she was carrying. The woman, it is said, had entered the store and secreted the ham among some articles she had purchased. The storekeeper allowed the shoplifter to proceed and made no attempt to detain her.

Storm in the Bay.

The steamer Norfolk reached her wharf at this port this morning, but a few minutes behind schedule time, although she encountered heavy weather in Chesapeake bay last night. The southwest wind blew with considerable force, but the steamer escaped damage from waves or wind.

Change in the Weather.

The rainy weather of yesterday was followed by clearing conditions by sunset and the stars were shining early in the night. The northwest wind gained force and lowered the temperature considerably by this morning, when fires were again kindled in most houses.

Last Hope Vanished.

When leading physicians said that W. M Smithart, of Pekin, Ia., had incurable consumption, his last hope vanished; but Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Cold, kept him out of his grave. He says: "This great specific completely cured me, and saved my life. Since then, I have used it for over 10 years, and consider it a marvelous throat and lung cure." Va., and Dr. Washington Berry Grove, of the United States navy, were married yesterday evening in the Church of the Holy Spirit, Charlestown, W. Va., by Rev. Andrew J. Willis, the rector. ### Opera House.

The L. J. Tempest Dramatic Company continues to draw good-sized crowds to the Opera House. The drama presented last night was "Plucking of a Rose," an Irish piece, and was produced in the company's usual good style. The shows presented by this company are all excellent pieces and are of a refined nature. The members of the company are capable of filling the parts they play and should receive good support from the theatre-going public. Tonight the attraction will be "The Lighthouse Tragedy," one of the company's best pieces.

Circus Tomorrow.

The Cole & Roger's Circus will exhibit on the old fair grounds on upper King street tomorrow. This company is composed of some of the best performers and their menagerie is a very interesting feature. There will be two performances—one in the afternoon and the other at night.

A tramway and apparatus for the quick handling of vessel cargoes is being constructed on the new pier and will be the only thing of its kind in this section of the country.

As will be seen by a notice elsewhere, Lyons Brothers, wood and coal dealers, have removed their yard to Pincess street, between Fairfax and Lee. The office will, however, remain at the northeast corner of Duke and Fairfax streets. This firm asks for a share of the public patronage and promises fair dealing.

Official.

The following message was sent to the City Council at the meeting on Tuesday night last by Mayor Paff:

To the Hon. City Council, Alexandria, Va.

Gentlemen:—At this the first meeting after the summer vacation I desire to congratulate you on the very competent manner in which you have legislated the affairs of our city. So complete has your work been that there was no occasion for a single called meeting. This, I firmly believe, is without precedent.

In again entering upon your arduous duties I desire to call your attention to a matter which, according to my idea, is of grave importance to the welfare and growth of our city. I deem it of great importance that you proceed in the manner as laid down by the law to extend the boundary lines of our city, taking in a part of the neighboring counties. An investigation will assure you that we are one of the most congested built up cities in the country and absolutely need more room. Moreover the aid of our police and fire department is frequently asked for by our neighbors who do not pay one cent toward maintaining the same. I am inclined to the belief that a large number of these county inhabitants would welcome such a move on our part.

Another matter which I desire to bring to your attention is the Health Department, also that of the Physicians to the Poor, recently I had occasion to investigate and found both in rather bad shape. If you deem it advisable to refer this to your proper committees I will furnish them with data (which I have in hand) showing how closely these respective departments have been conducted.

Respectfully submitted,
FRED. J. PAFF, Mayor.

Astors' Grandchild.

"The richest baby in the world," whispered nurses and attendants last Wednesday when a daughter was born to Mrs. Herbert Henry Spender-Clay in London. It's the truth, for this mite of humanity is the granddaughter of William Waldorf Astor, who will burden her, one of these days, with a fortune of at least $100,000,000, while perhaps one-tenth that much more will descend upon her from the father's side. Baby Clay will grow up with only a traditional recollection that she has American blood in her veins. He, mother, who was Miss Pauline Astor, was born at 8 east Thirty-third street, New York, but she was only a miss in short skirts when her father decided he liked England better than his native country.

Since her tenth year Mrs. Spender-Clay has paid only two brief visits to America. Nevertheless, up to the time she married an Englishman she used to say, in spite of her father's renunciation of his American citizenship, that she preferred to be known as an American. The marriage of Miss Astor to Captain H. H. Spender-Clay took place October 29 of last year.

Attacks the Openwork Stocking.

"The openwork stocking is full of danger to the purity of the youth of our land," declared Mrs. Katharine Stevenson, State president of the Massachusetts Woman's Christain Temperance Union, at the thirty-second annual convention which opened in Cambridge, Massachusetts, yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Stevenson was making the annual address when she attacked openwork stockings, decollette dressing and their dire consequences. "Our purity crusade," she said, "would be directed against the dangers of immodest dressing. Openwork has its place, but that place is not in public, and it is seen altogether too frequently out of place. "When we remember who sets the fashions to the world, we may well question if an insidious purpose, deadly to the highest womanhood, may not run through the steadily growing tendency to immodest unnecessary display of a woman's person."

Labor Unions Enjoined.

Judge Morris, of the Common Pleas Court, at Toledo, O., has granted a sweeping injunction restraining the local Typographical Union and the Central Labor Union from interfering with the employees of the German Express Company, which was recently declared for the open shop. The injunction restrains the defendants from picketing and patroling the premises of the company and from boycotting its business by means of circulars notifying the public that the plaintiff is unfair to labor.

Judge C. D. Clark, of the United States District Court, at Chattanooga, Tenn., has granted a permanent injunction against the United Mineworkers of America and individual members of the order. The injunction was asked early in September by the Tennessee Consolidated Coal Company, following the murder of miners at Tracey City, where the men are on strike. Several companies of the State National Guard on duty at Tracey City will probably be released.

Judge Jesse Holdom, in Chicago yesterday granted an injunction restraining Typographical Union No. 16 and its members from interfering with employees of members of the Chicago Typothetæ, against whom a strike has been declared by the printers' union. The injunction restrains union men from picketing and attempting to bribe workmen.

Physicians were helpless, but Bucklen's Arnica Salve quickly healed it." Soothes and heals burns like magic. 25c at E. S. Leadbeater, & Sons, druggists.

Insomnia and Indigestion Cured.

'Last year I had a very severe attack of indigestion. I could not sleep at night and suffered most excruciating pains for three hours after each meal. I was troubled this way for about three months when I used Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and received immediate relief," says John Dixon, Tullamore, Ontario, Canada. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

A Splendid Idea.

A new idea in a Cough Syrup is advanced in Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar. Besides containing Pine Tar, Honey and other valuable remedies. It is rendered Laxative so that its use insures a prompt and efficient evacuation of the bowels. It relaxes the nervous system, and cures all coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, etc. A red clover blossoms and the honey bee is on every bottle of the Original Laxative Cough Syrup—Kennedy's Laxative Honey Tar. An ideal remedy for children. Mothers praise it. It is best for all. Sold by W. F. Creighton, & Co., 401 King street.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhœa. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

Faith Not Necessary.

You may be just as skeptical and pessimistic as you please. Kodol will digest what you eat whether you eat or not. You can put your food in a bowl, pour a little Kodol Dyspepsia Cure on it and it will digest it the same as it will in your stomach. It can't help but cure Indigestion and Dyspepsia. It is curing hunereds and thousands—some had faith and some didn't. Kodol will cure you if medicine can cure you, whether you have faith in it or not. Sold by W. F. Creighton, & Co. 401 King street.
